DEFINITIONS

1. (1) In these Regulations:

"Cyprus"	means the Republic of Cyprus.
"the Law"	means the Companies Law, Cap 113 or any law substituting or amending the same.
"the Seal"	means the Common Seal of the Company.
"the Secretary"	means any person appointed to perform the duties of the Secretary of the Company.
- (2) Expressions referring to writing shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as including references to printing, lithography, photography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.
- (3) Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these regulations shall bear the same meaning as in the Law or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these Regulations become binding on the Company.

TABLE "A" EXCLUDED

2. (1) The Regulations contained in Table "A" in the First Schedule to the Law shall not apply, except so far as the same are repeated or contained in these Regulations.
- (2) In the event that the Company has one and only Member:
 - (a) the sole Member shall carry all the powers of the General Meeting in accordance with the Law, provided always that all resolutions to be passed by the Member in General Meetings shall be recorded in minutes or in written form and
 - (b) all agreements entered into between the sole Member and the Company shall be recorded in minutes or in written form, unless such agreements relate to the ongoing activities of the Company entered into under normal circumstances.

PRELIMINARY

3. The Company is a private company and accordingly:
 - (1) the right to transfer shares is restricted to the manner hereinafter prescribed;
 - (2) the number of Members of the Company (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the Company and of persons who, having been formerly in the employment of the Company, were, while in such employment and have continued after the termination of such employment, to be Members of the Company) is limited to fifty. Provided that where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the Company jointly they shall, for the purpose of this Regulation, be treated as a single Member;
 - (3) any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the Company is prohibited;
 - (4) the Company shall not have power to issue share warrants to bearer.

BUSINESS

4. The Company shall pay all preliminary and other expenses and enter into, adopt or carry into effect and take over or continue (with such modifications, if any, as the contracting parties shall agree and the board of Directors shall approve) any agreement or business or work reached or carried on (as the case might be) prior to incorporation, as the Company may decide.

SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

5. The shares shall be at the disposal of the Company, which may, by ordinary resolution, allot or otherwise dispose of them, subject to Regulation 3 and to the provisions of the following Regulation, to such persons at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as they think proper, and provided that no shares shall be issued at a discount, except as provided by section 56 of the Law.
6. Unless otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting, any original shares for the time being unissued and not allotted and any new shares from time to time to be created shall, before they are issued, be offered to the Members in proportion, as nearly as possible, to the number of shares held by them. Such an offer shall be made by notice, specifying the number of shares on offer and the time period for acceptance, at the expiration of which, if no acceptance is forthcoming, it will be deemed to have been declined and after the expiration of such period of time or upon receipt of notification from the person to whom the offer has been made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Company may, subject to these Regulations, dispose of the same in such a manner as it considers most beneficial for the Company. The Company may, likewise, dispose of any such new or original shares as aforesaid, which, by reason of the proportion borne by them to the number of persons entitled to such offer as aforesaid or by reason of any other difficulty in apportioning the same, cannot in the opinion of the Company be conveniently offered in the manner herein before provided.
7. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any shares in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividends, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time determine by ordinary resolution.

8. Subject to the provisions of section 57 of the Law, any preference shares may, by ordinary resolution, be issued, on condition that they will be redeemed or that the Company may elect to redeem them, on such terms and in such a manner as would be determined by special resolution prior to the issuing of such shares.
9. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three quarters of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate General Meeting, the provisions of these Regulations relating to General Meetings shall apply, provided that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.
10. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.
11. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 52 of the Law, provided that the percentage rate or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of ten per cent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to ten per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also, on any issue of shares, pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
12. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any shares upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share, except the absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
13. Every person whose name is entered as a Member in the Register of Members shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgement of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide), one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of 12,5 cents for every certificate after the first or such lower sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine. Every certificate shall bear the Common Seal of the Company and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. Provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
14. If a share certificate be defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of a fee of 12,5 cents or such lower sum and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company for investigating evidence, as the Directors think fit.

15. The Company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of or for any shares in the Company or in its holding company nor shall the Company make a loan for any purpose whatsoever on the security of its shares or those of its holding company, but nothing in this Regulation shall prohibit transactions mentioned in the proviso to section 53(1) of the Law.

LIEN

16. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the Company; but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Regulation. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.
17. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.
18. To give effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
19. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the balance, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable, as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

20. The Directors may, from time to time, make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen day's notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.
21. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.

22. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
23. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person owing this sum shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment, at such rate as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine but in no case exceeding the maximum annual rate allowed by law. Nevertheless, the Board of Directors may waive its claim to such payment of interest, in whole or in part.
24. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these Regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise, shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. The Directors may, upon the issuing of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
25. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate, not exceeding (unless the Company in General Meeting shall otherwise direct) five per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying such sum in advance.

CONVENTIONAL TRANSFER OF SHARES

26. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.
27. Subject to such of the restrictions of these Regulations as may be applicable, any Member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Directors may approve.
28. Except in the case where the Company has one and only Member, the Directors may decline to register the transfer of a share to a person of whom they shall not approve, and they may also decline to register the transfer of a share on which the Company has a lien.
29. The Directors may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:
- (1) a fee of one Euro and seventy one cents or such lesser sum as the Directors may from time to time require, is paid to the Company in respect thereof;
 - (2) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require, to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
 - (3) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.
30. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer, they shall, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

31. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year.
32. The Company shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding one Euro and seventy one cents on the registration of every probate, letter of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, or other instrument.
33. Regulations 26 and 27 shall be read subject to the provisions of Regulation 34.
34. (1) For the purposes of this Regulation, where any person is unconditionally entitled to be registered as the holder of such share, he shall be deemed to be a Member of the Company in respect of that share.
- (2) Except as hereinafter provided, no shares in the Company shall be transferred unless and until the rights of pre-emption hereinafter conferred shall have been exhausted.
- (3) Every Member who desires to transfer any share or shares (hereinafter called the vendor), shall give to the Company notice in writing of such desire (hereinafter called transfer notice). Subject as hereinafter mentioned, a transfer notice shall render the Company the vendor's agent for the sale of the share or shares specified therein (hereinafter called the said shares), in one or more lots, at the discretion of the Directors, to the Members other than the vendor, at the price to be agreed upon by the vendor and the remaining Members of the Company, or, in case of difference or no such agreement, at the price which the Auditor of the Company for the time being shall, by writing under his hand, certify to be, in his opinion, the fair value thereof as between a willing seller and a willing buyer. A transfer notice may contain a provision that unless all the shares comprised therein are sold by the Company pursuant to this Regulation, none shall be so sold and any provision shall be binding on the Company.
- (4) If the Auditor is asked to certify a fair value, as aforesaid, the Company shall, as soon as it receives the Auditor's certificate, furnish a certified copy thereof to the vendor and the vendor shall be entitled, by notice in writing given to the Company within ten days of the service upon him of the said certified copy, to cancel the Company's authority to sell the said shares. The cost of obtaining the certificate shall be borne by the Company, unless the vendor shall give notice of cancellation as aforesaid, in which case he shall bear the said cost.
- (5) Upon the value being fixed as aforesaid and provided the vendor shall not give notice of cancellation as aforesaid, the Company shall forthwith, by notice in writing, inform each Member other than the vendor and other than Members holding employees' shares only, of the number and value of the said shares and invite each such Member to apply in writing to the Company within twenty-one days of the date of dispatch of the notice (which date shall be specified therein) for such maximum number of the said shares (being all or any part thereof) as he shall specify in such application.
- (6) If the said Members shall, within the said period of twenty-one days, apply for all or (except where the transfer notice provides otherwise) any of the said shares, the Directors shall allocate the said shares (or so many of them as shall be applied for as aforesaid) to or amongst the applicants and in case of competition, pro rata (as nearly as possible) according to the number of shares in the Company (other than employees' shares) of which they are registered or unconditionally entitled to be registered as holders, provided that no applicant shall be obliged to take more than the maximum number of shares specified by him as aforesaid; and the Company shall forthwith give notice of such allocations (hereinafter called an allocation notice) to the vendor and to the persons to whom the shares have been allocated and shall specify in such notice the place and time (being not earlier than fourteen and not later than twenty-eight days after the date of the notice) at which the sale of the shares so allocated shall be completed.

- (7) The vendor shall be bound to transfer the shares comprised in an allocation notice to the purchasers named therein at the time and place therein specified; and if he shall fail to do so, the Chairman of the Company or some other person appointed by the Directors, shall be deemed to have been appointed attorney of the vendor with full power to execute, complete and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the vendor, transfers of the shares to the purchasers thereof, against payment of the value to the Company. Upon payment of the share value to the Company, the purchaser shall be deemed to have obtained a good quittance for such payment and on execution and delivery of the transfer; the purchaser shall be entitled to insist upon his name being entered in the Register of Members as the holder, by transfer, of the shares. The Company shall forthwith pay the proceeds into a separate bank account in the Company's name and shall hold such proceeds in trust for the vendor.
- (8) During the six months following the expiry of the said period of twenty-one days referred to in paragraph (5) of this Regulation, the vendor shall be at liberty, (subject nevertheless to the provisions of Regulation 28) to transfer to any person and at any price (not being less than the value fixed under paragraph (3) of this Regulation) any share not allocated by the Directors in an allocation notice. Provided that, if the vendor stipulated in his transfer notice that unless all the shares comprised therein were sold pursuant to this Regulation, none should be so sold, the vendor shall not be entitled, save with the written consent of all the other Members of the Company, to sell hereunder only some of the shares comprised in his transfer notice.
- (9) Any share may be transferred by a Member to his spouse, child, other direct relative, parent, brother or sister of that Member or to a company beneficially owned or controlled by such Member and any share of a deceased Member may be transferred by his personal representatives to any widow, widower, child, direct relative, parent, brother or sister of such deceased Member and shares standing in the name of the trustees of any deceased Member may be transferred upon any change of trustees to the trustees for the time being of such will; and where the Member is a body corporate, any share may be transferred by such Member to its subsidiary or holding company or to a company controlled by such holding company. The rights of pre-emption herein before conferred in this Regulation shall not arise on the occasion of any such transfer or transfers as aforesaid and Regulation 28 shall be read subject to this paragraph.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 35. In case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors, where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased, where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised, by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

36. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.
37. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid, as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer was a transfer signed by that Member.
38. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to Meetings of the Company. Provided always that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

39. If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
40. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice), on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
41. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time, thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect.
42. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled, on such terms as the Directors think fit.
43. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, nevertheless, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.

44. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share in the Company has been forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
45. The provisions of these Regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

46. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.
47. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same Regulations as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might prior to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances allow; and the Directors may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, provided that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
48. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at Meetings of the Company and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if it had existed in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
49. Such of the Regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares, shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

50. The Company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution, increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
51. The Company may, by ordinary resolution:
- (1) consolidate its share capital and divide all or part of it into shares of a higher value than its existing shares;
 - (2) divide the existing shares or any of them into shares of a lower value than stipulated in the Memorandum of Association, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of section 60(1)(d) of the Law; and
 - (3) cancel any shares which, at the date of passing the relevant resolution, shall not have been subscribed for or agreed to be subscribed for by any person.
52. The Company may, by special resolution, reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve or any share premium account, in any manner and with and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required, by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

53. (1) The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting, in addition to any other Meetings in that year and shall specify the Meeting as such in the notices calling it. Not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next.
- (2) Provided that so long as the Company holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint.
54. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
55. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 126 of the Law. If at any time there are not within Cyprus sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director or any two Members of the Company may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which Meetings may be convened by the Directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

56. (1) An Annual General Meeting and a Meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least, and a Meeting of the Company other than an Annual General Meeting or a Meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to have been served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, day and time of the Meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be delivered, in the manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, to such persons as are, under the Regulations of the Company, entitled to receive such notices from the Company.

- (2) Provided that a Meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Regulation, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:
- (a) in the case of a Meeting called as the Annual General Meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - (b) in the case of any other Meeting, by the majority in number of the Members having the right to attend and vote at the Meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

57. The accidental omission to give notice of a Meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a Meeting by any person entitled to receive notice, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that Meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

58. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of the declaration of a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditor.
59. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the Meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, two Members present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum, except where the Company has only a sole Member, in which case that Member shall form a quorum.
60. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting, a quorum is not formed, the Meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case, it shall stand adjourned for the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or for such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine and if, at the adjourned Meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting, the Members present shall constitute a quorum.
61. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company or if there is no such Chairman or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the Meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the Meeting.
62. If at any Meeting, no Director is willing to act as Chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the Meeting, the Members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the Meeting.

63. The Chairman may, with the consent of any Meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall, if so directed by the Meeting), adjourn the Meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a Meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned Meeting shall be given, as in the case of the original Meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned Meeting.
64. (1) At any General Meeting any resolution put to the vote of the Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
- (a) by the Chairman; or
 - (b) by at least two Members present in person or by proxy; or
 - (c) by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the Meeting; or
 - (d) by a Member or Members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the Meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.
- (2) Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
- (3) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
65. Except as provided in Regulation 68, if a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Meeting at which the poll was demanded.
66. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or in a poll, the Chairman of the Meeting shall have the right to a second or "casting" vote.
67. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded of any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the Meeting directs and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded, may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.

VOTE OF MEMBERS

68. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every Member present in person shall have one vote and in a poll every Member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

69. In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.
70. A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any Court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or in a poll, through the administrator of his property, his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of an administrator, committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that Court and any such administrator, committee, receiver, curator bonis or other person may, in a poll, vote by proxy.
71. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
72. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter, except at the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such Meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the Meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
73. In a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
74. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company.
75. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited with the Registered Office of the Company or at such other place within Cyprus as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the Meeting, at any time before the time for holding the Meeting or adjourned Meeting, at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, at any time before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
76. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances permit:

- Signed this _____ day of _____ of the year _____
77. Where it is desired to afford Members an opportunity of voting for or against a resolution the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances permit:

This form is to be used in favour of/against the resolution.

Signed this _____ day of _____ of the year _____

Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy will vote as he thinks fit.

78. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
79. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notification in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at its Registered Office before the commencement of the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the proxy is used.
80. Subject to the provisions of the Law, a resolution in writing signed by all the Members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at General Meetings (or being corporations, by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more of the Members or their attorneys and signature in the case of a body corporate which is a Member shall be sufficient if made by a Director or other authorised officer thereof or its duly appointed attorney.

85. A Director of the Company may be or become a Director or other officer of, or otherwise interested in, any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as a shareholder or otherwise, and no such Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a Director or officer of, or from his interest in, such other company unless the Company otherwise directs.

- (4) Any Director may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services rendered as if he were not a Director; provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise a Director or his firm to act as Auditor of the Company.
92. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the Directors shall from time to time by resolution determine.

Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting, and shall then be eligible for re-election.
97. The Company may, by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given in accordance with section 136 of the Law, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, notwithstanding anything in these Regulations or in any agreement between the Company and such Director. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim such Director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.
98. At any time, and from time to time, the Company may (without prejudice to the powers of the Directors under Regulation 96), by ordinary resolution, appoint any person as Director and determine the period for which such person is to hold office.

101. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board, but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the Regulations of the Company as the necessary quorum of Directors, the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number, or of summoning a General Meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.

All acts done by any Meeting of the Directors or of a Committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.
107. A resolution in writing signed or approved by letter, telex, facsimile, telegram or cablegram by each Director or his alternate shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a Meeting of the Directors duly convened and held and when signed may consist of several documents each signed by one or more of the persons aforesaid.

- (2) An Alternate Director shall (except as regards the power to appoint an Alternate Director and remuneration) be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the other Directors, and shall be entitled to receive notices of all Meetings of the Directors and to attend, speak and vote at any such Meeting at which his appointer is not present.
- (3) One person may act as Alternate Director to more than one Director and while he is so acting shall be entitled to a separate vote for each Director he is representing and, if he is himself a Director, his vote or votes as an Alternate Director shall be in addition to his own vote.
- (4) Any appointment or removal of an Alternate Director may be made by cable, telegram or radiogram or in any other manner approved by the Directors. Any cable, telegram or radiogram shall be confirmed as soon as possible by letter but may be acted upon by the Company meanwhile.
- (5) If a Director making any such appointment as aforesaid shall cease to be a Director otherwise than by reason of vacating his office at a Meeting of the Company at which he is re-elected, the person appointed by him shall thereupon cease to have any power or authority to act as an Alternate Director.
- (6) A Director shall not be liable for the acts and defaults of any Alternate Director appointed by him.
- (7) An Alternate Director shall not be taken into account in calculating the minimum or maximum number of Directors allowed for the time being but he shall be counted for the purpose of assessing whether a quorum is present at any Meeting of the Directors attended by him at which he is entitled to vote.

MANAGING DIRECTOR

109. The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of the Board to the office of Managing Director for such period and on such terms as they think fit, and, subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case, may revoke such appointment. A Director so appointed shall not, whilst holding that office, be subject to retirement by rotation or be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of Directors, but his appointment shall be automatically determined if he ceases for any reason to be a Director.
110. A Managing Director shall receive such remuneration (whether by way of salary, commission or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another) as the Directors may determine.
111. The Directors may entrust to and confer upon a Managing Director any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they may think fit, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

SECRETARY

112. The Secretary shall be appointed by the Directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by them.
113. With the exception of the case where the Company has one and only Member, no person shall be appointed or hold office as Secretary who is:
- (1) the sole Director of the Company; or
 - (2) a corporation, the sole Director of which is the sole Director of the Company; or
 - (3) the sole Director of a corporation which is the sole Director of the Company.
114. With the exception of the case where the Company has one and only Member, a provision of the Law or these Regulations requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a Director and the Secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as Director and as, or in place of, the Secretary.

SEALS

115. (1) The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Common Seal, which shall only be used with the authority of the Directors or of a Committee of Directors authorised by the Directors in that respect and every document to which the Common Seal shall be affixed shall be signed by a Director and shall be countersigned by the Secretary or by a second Director or by some other person appointed by the Directors for this purpose.
- (2) The Directors may resolve for additional Official Seals to be produced for use abroad in any country in which the Company may transact business and such Official Seals shall only be used with the authority of the Directors or of a Committee of Directors authorised in that respect by the Directors and every document to which such an Official Seal shall be affixed shall be signed by the person or persons authorised in that respect by the Directors.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVES

116. The Company in General Meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.
117. The Directors may from time to time pay to the Members such interim dividends as appear to the Directors to be justified by the profits of the Company.
118. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of profits.
119. The Directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the Directors may from time to time think fit. The Directors may also, without transferring the same to a reserve, carry forward any profits which they may think prudent not to distribute.

120. Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividend, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but no amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this Regulation as paid on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
121. The Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.
122. Any General Meeting declaring a dividend or bonus may direct payment of such dividend or bonus wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid up shares, debentures or debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more such ways, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution, and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors.
123. Any dividend, interest or other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named in the Register of Members or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. Any one of two or more joint holders may issue valid receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the shares held by them as joint holders.
124. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

ACCOUNTS

125. (1) The Directors shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to:
 - (a) sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place;
 - (b) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company; and
 - (c) the assets and liabilities of the Company.

- (2) Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.
126. The books of account shall be kept at the Registered Office of the Company, or, subject to section 141(3) of the Law, at such other place or places as the Directors think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the Directors.
127. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or Regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of Members, not being Directors and no Member (not being a Director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Directors or by the Company in General Meeting.
128. The Directors shall from time to time, in accordance with sections 142, 144 and 151 of the Law cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Company in General Meeting such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts (if any) and reports as are referred to in those sections.
129. (1) A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Company in General Meeting, together with a copy of the Auditor's report shall, not less than twenty-one days before the date of the Meeting, be sent to every Member of and every holder of debentures of the Company and to every person registered under Regulation 37.
- (2) Provided that this Regulation shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person of whose address the Company is not aware or to more than one of the joint holders of any shares or debentures.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

130. The Company in General Meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Directors, resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions, on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company, to be allotted, distributed and credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in one way and partly in the other, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution. Provided that a share premium account and a capital redemption reserve fund may, for the purposes of this Regulation, only be applied to the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to Members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.
131. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall be passed, the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Directors to make such provisions by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise, as they think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions and also to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.

AUDIT

132. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 153 to 156 (both inclusive) of the Law.

NOTICES

133. A notice may be served by the Company upon any Member either personally or by sending it by post to him or to his registered address or (if he has no registered address within Cyprus) to the address, if any, within Cyprus supplied by him to the Company for serving notices to him. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to have been effected where a properly addressed, prepaid envelope is posted containing the notice and to have been effected, in the case of a notice of a Meeting, at the expiration of twenty-four hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case, at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
134. A notice may be served by the Company upon the joint holders of a share by serving the notice upon the joint holder first named in the Register of Members in respect of the share.
135. A notice may be served by the Company upon the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like descriptions, at the address, if any, within Cyprus, supplied for this purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such an address has been so supplied) by serving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been served if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.
136. Notice of every General Meeting shall be served in any manner herein before authorised upon:
- (1) every Member, except those Members who (having no registered address within Cyprus) have not supplied to the Company an address within Cyprus for the serving of notices upon them;
 - (2) every person upon whom the ownership of a share passes by reason of his being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a Member, where the Member, but for his death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the Meeting; and
 - (3) the Auditor for the time being of the Company. No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of General Meetings.

WINDING UP

137. If the Company shall be wound up, the Liquidator may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Law, divide amongst the Members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may, for such purpose set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out between the Members or different classes of Members. The Liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees, upon such trusts, for the benefit of the contributories, as the Liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.

INDEMNITY

138. Every Director or other officer for the time being of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any losses or liabilities which he may sustain or incur in or about the execution of his duties, including liabilities incurred in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under section 383 of the Law in which relief is granted to him by the Court and no Director or officer of the Company shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to or be incurred by the Company in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto. But this clause shall only have effect in so far as its provisions are not avoided by section 197 of the Law.
